Town and Country Planning Act 1961 PLANNING PERMIT

TIME LIMITS

1. This permit will expire in 2 years from the date of issue unless the permit makes some other provision. (Refer to Sections 18 (5), 18 (6), 18 (7) and 18 (8) Town and Country Planning Act 1961.)

TIME LIMITS

1. This permit will expire in 2 years from the date of issue unless the permit makes some other provision. (Refer to Sections 18 (5), 18 (6), 18 (7) and 18 (8) Town and Country Planning Act 1961.)
2. A further application may be made to the Responsible Authority to extend a time provided that application is made:
 - (a) before the expiry date where the use of land has been authorized for a specified period. (Refer to Section 18 (7) Town and Country Planning Act 1961); or
 - (b) before or within three months after the expiry of the permit in all other cases. (Refer to Sections 18 (5) and 18 (6) Town and Country Planning Act 1961.)

APPEAL PROVISIONS

3. Attention is drawn to Section 19 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1961 which deals with appeals relating to permits, etc., and to the Planning Appeals Board Regulations 1981, which deal with lodgement of appeals.

4. Appeals must be lodged in or to the effect of the Notice of Appeal form set out in the Planning Appeals Board Regulations. Copies of this form must be lodged with:

The Registrar of the Planning Appeals Board
500 Collins Street
MELBOURNE, VIC. 3000
Telephone Number: 617 0211

(This address was correct when this form was printed. You are advised to check the address before sending your appeal to the Registrar.)

5. An applicant who feels aggrieved by any of the conditions specified in this permit may appeal against that condition. The appeal must be lodged within two months after the making of the determination.

6. Any person who feels aggrieved by a determination of the responsible authority refusing to extend the time (other than the specified period during which land may be used for a particular purpose) within which any action is to be commenced or completed, may appeal against that determination. The appeal must be lodged within two months after the determination refusing to grant the extension.

7. Any person who feels aggrieved by the failure of the responsible authority to extend the time (other than the specified period during which land may be used for a particular purpose) within which any action is to be commenced or completed, may appeal against that failure to extend. The appeal may be lodged at any time after the expiration of the period of one month from the time of application for extension.

8. If this permit contains a condition that any specified matter or thing be done to the satisfaction of the responsible authority and any dispute arises in relation thereto, an owner/user and/or developer of the land or the responsible authority may refer the matter to the Planning Appeals Board and its decision shall be given effect to by both the responsible authority and any other person.

THE ISSUE OF THIS PERMIT DOES NOT OBLIVATE THE NECESSITY FOR COMPLYING WITH THE REQUIREMENTS OF ANY OTHER AUTHORITY PURSUANT TO ANY STATUTE OR REGULATION.
