IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT THIS NOTICE

WHAT HAS BEEN DECIDED

The Responsible Authority has issued a permit. (Note: This is not a permit granted under Division 5 of Part 4 of the Planning and Environment Act 1987.)

WHEN DOES A PERMIT BEGIN?

A permit operates:

- * from the date specified in the permit; or
- * if no date is specified, from:
 - (i) the date of the decision of the Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal, if the permit was issued at the direction of the Tribunal; or
 - (ii) the date on which it was issued, in any other case.

WHEN DOES A PERMIT EXPIRE?

1. A permit for the development of land expires if -
 - * the development or any stage of it does not start within the time specified in the permit; or
 - * the development requires the certification of a plan of subdivision or consolidation under the Subdivision Act 1988 and a plan is not certified within two years of the issue of a permit, unless the permit contains a different provision; or
 - * the development or any stage of it is not completed within the time specified in the permit, or if no time is specified, within two years after the issue of the permit or in the case of a subdivision or consolidation within 5 years of the certification of the plan of subdivision or consolidation under the Subdivision Act 1988.
2. A permit for the use of land expires if -
 - * the use does not start within the time specified in the permit, or if no time is specified, within two years of the issue of the permit; or
 - * the use is discontinued for a period of two years.
3. A permit for the development and use of land expires if -
 - * the development or any stage of it does not start within the time specified in the permit; or
 - * the development or any stage of it is not completed within the time specified in the permit, or if no time is specified, within two years after the issue of the permit; or
 - * the use does not start within the time specified in the permit, or if no time is specified, within two years of the issue of the permit; or
 - * the use is discontinued for a period of two years.
4. If a permit for the use of land or the development of land or relating to any of the circumstances mentioned in Section 6A(2) of the Planning and Environment Act 1987, or to any combination of use, development or any of those circumstances requires the certification of a plan under the Subdivision Act 1988, unless the permit contains a different provision -
 - * the use or development of any stage is to be taken to have started when the plan is certified; and
 - * the permit expires if the plan is not certified within two years of the issue of the permit.
5. The expiry of a permit does not affect the validity of anything done under that permit before the expiry.

WHAT ABOUT APPLICATIONS FOR REVIEW?

- * The person who applied for the permit may apply for a review of any condition in the permit unless it was granted at the direction of the Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal where, in such case, no right of review exists.
- * An application for review must be lodged within 60 days after the permit was issued, unless a Notice of Decision to Grant a Permit has been issued previously, in which case the application for review must be lodged within 60 days after the giving of that notice.
- * An application for review is lodged with the Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal.
- * An application for review must be made on an Application for Review form which can be obtained from the Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal, and be accompanied by the prescribed fee.
- * An application for review must state the grounds upon which it is based.
- * An application for review must also be served on the Responsible Authority.
- * Details about applications for review and the fees payable can be obtained from the Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal 7th Floor, 55 King Street, Melbourne. Phone 9628 9777.
