RENT REVIEW

PART A – MARKET REVIEW

The Landlord may review the annual rent on each Review Date when there is to be a Market Review as follows;

- 1 Not earlier than three months before the Review Date and not later than sixty days after the Review Date the Landlord must give the Tenant notice of the new rental it proposes be paid by the Tenant during that period or part thereof being the rent advised to it by its valuer.
- 2 Time shall not be of the essence in respect of the Landlord's rent review notice and any delay by the Landlord in giving notice will not affect the Landlord's rights.
- 3 Within thirty days of being notified in writing of the proposed new rent the Tenant may give to the Landlord written notice of objection to the proposed new rent and within a further thirty days from the notice of objection supply the Landlord with a rent valuation from a qualified valuer who is a member of the Australian Property Institute. If no notice of objection is given or if notice is given and no rent valuation is supplied the new rent will be the new rent as proposed in the Landlord's notice.
- 4 If within thirty days from the judgement with the Landlord of the Tenant's rent valuation the Landlord and the Tenant are unable to agree on the new rent and a conference of the Landlord's and Tenant's valuers has failed to result in agreement on the rent the new rent shall be determined by a valuer nominated by the President for the time being of the Australian Property Institute (the nominated valuer) who in making a determination, must accept representations from either party received within thirty days of the appointment.
- 5 The decision of the nominated valuer will be final and binding and the nominated valuer's costs and fees must be paid by the parties equally.
- 6 Until the new rent is agreed or determined the Tenant must pay to the Landlord immediately prior to the date fixed for review until such time as the new rent is determined.
- 7 After the new rent is determined the Tenant must pay to the Landlord or the Landlord must refund to the Tenant the difference if any between the amount of the new rent paid since the date fixed for review.

This copied document to be made available for the sole purpose of enabling the ADVERTISED the Planning and Environment Act 1987. The document must not be used for any purpose which may breach any copyright.

Method of Determination:

- 1 In determining a new rent for the Land the nominated valuer must as nearly as possible determine the open market rent value on the date when that rent is to apply for the Land having regard to the following matters:
 - a. act as an expert and not as an arbitrator and his decision will be final and binding on the parties;
 - b. there is a reasonable period within which to negotiate the new rent having regard to the nature of the property and the state of the market;
 - c. the Landlord and the Tenant are well acquainted with the Land and aware of any factors which might affect its value.
 - d. The length of the Term and the period between rent reviews.
 - e. The terms and obligations of the Lease.
 - f. The highest and best use for the Land.
 - g. The rental of comparable land
 - h. Rents paid to the Tenant under any sub leases or licences but must disregard the value of the Tenant's Improvements and the goodwill of the Tenant's business.

PART B – CPI REVIEW

1 Where there is a CPI Review the rent payable from the relevant Review Date will be determined in accordance with the formula:

(z) a

where

"a" is the Rent payable in respect of the year immediately preceding that Review Date;

"z" is the value of the Index Number of the quarter ending within three months immediately preceding that Review Date; and

"y" is the value of the Index Number for the quarter ending within three months immediately preceding the immediately preceding Review Date or, in the case of the initial Review Date the corresponding quarter preceding the Commencement Date

For the purposes of the formula "Index Number" means the All Groups Consumer Price Index, Melbourne issued by the Australian Bureau of Statistics (or its successor body) for the quarters ending on the last days of March, June, September and December (CPI).

2 If the CPI is discontinued or is calculated from a different base year or by reference to a significantly different basket or if it becomes impossible by reason of any change in the method used to compile the CPI or for any other reason whatsoever to calculate the reviewed rent by reference to the CPI or the CPI ceases to be published then the Landlord and the Tenant must use their best endeavours to agree upon another index ("the Substitute Index") in substitution for the CPI. If the parties cannot agree on the Substitute Index within fourteen days of either party notifying the other that it considers it necessary to nominate a substitute index or if there is a dispute as to what index is to be used then either party may request the President of the Institute of Actuaries of Australia to nominate an independent consulting actuary to determine the dispute or to nominate a Substitute Index (as the case may be). The independent consulting actuary shall act as an expert and not an arbitrator and his decision shall be final and binding on the parties. The fees of the independent consulting actuary shall be paid equally by the parties and he shall be requested to make his determination within fourteen days of his appointment.

3 If the annual rent to apply after any CPI Review has not been ascertained by the relevant Review Date then the Tenant will continue to pay to the Landlord the rent payable immediately prior to the Review Date until the reviewed rent has been determined whereupon the Tenant shall immediately pay to the Landlord the amount necessary to ensure that the Landlord receives the reviewed rent from the Review Date or, if the Reviewed Rent is less than the rent paid prior to the Review Date, the Landlord will credit the difference to the Tenant's rent account.

4 Any Reviewed Rent payable pursuant to this schedule shall be payable at the times and in the manner set forth in this Lease or any variation or extension thereof otherwise relating to the payment of rent.
